BLOODY BATTLES.

Fought Between the Boers and Her Majesty's Soldiers.

FORMER DRIVEN PELLMELL

From the Field at Elandslaagte After Stubborn Resistance.

TURN IN THE TIDE AT GLENCOE

Latest Advices From the Front to the London Officials Indicate That Forces Are Retreating Before Superior Number of Warriors.

London, Oct. 23.—The British victories in Natal following each other in quick succession, though accompanied by heavy losses on the side of the victors, bear striking testimony of the valor of the vanquished Boers.

They appear to have fallen victims to the very plan which they counted on to drive the British into the sea. They have been beaten in detail by counter strokes carefully considered and brilliantly carried out in the face of courageous opposition which has done much to increase British respect for the burghers, whose splendid valor and determination it is universally admitted, reached the highest level. Fuller accounts of Saturday's battle at Elandslaagte emphasize the splendid gallantry exhibited on both sides and the superiority of the British in a pitched battle, although the Boers fought with the greatest tenacity to the last, only yielding when further fighting was hopeless.

An armored train with the men of the Manchester regiment appeared in the left at Ladysmith, at daybreak Saturday, in support of the Johannesburg Imperial light horse and the Natal field artillery, with the object of reopening communication at Elandslaagte.

The artillery took up a position above the town and shelled the railway station, from which the Boers ran out and the British mounted infantry entering the place, released the English prisoners.

The Boers, numbering some 1,600 men, with the guns, occupied a commanding position. They poured out such a well-directed fire on the British and their scouts were so active that the British force steadily retired until reinforcements arrived, when the mounted infantry was sent to drive the Boer scouts from the ridge on the right. A large force of mixed cavalry in the meanwhile swept over the plain and up the hill on the right.

The Lancers met with a heavy fusillade while on the left the British battery opened fire with good effect. The British infantry, who had debarked from the railway train in the interim, advanced steadily over the plain and up the rocky ridge previously cleared by the cavalry. The Boer artillery dropped shrapnel into the advancing columns, but the British finally sealed the hill, whence they overlooked the broad valley to the rocky hills forming the Boers' position, their camp being in the center.

On the left center the Boers had a battery of three large guns. The smaller hills were also strongly held. On the Boer right was the station in a valley on the British left. The latter's cavalry was on both flanks and a battery on the right was busy throwing shrapnel at the Boers' batteries.

Under the terrific infantry and artillery fire the men fell rapidly and the wounded were carried to the rear. But in spite of the steady work of the Boer guns and the sharpshooters concealed behind the rocks, the increasing fire of the advancing British infantry gradually gained the upper hand and the Manchester and Gordons, edging toward the right, gained the top of the ridge, thus outflanking the enemy's left.

At six the bugles sounded the "Charge" and the British swept ahead. The Boers fought to the last, only attempting to escape when further fighting was hopeless. In the meantime the Devonsires, pressing steadily up the left, were strongly opposed at the Boer camp and flanking hills, but they carried both at the charge with wild cheers and bugle blasts.

By 7 o'clock the British had gained the position and "Cease fire" was sounded.

Three 12½-pound Nordenfeldts were captured with quantities of munitions. The Boer dead and wounded among the rocks, who were numerous, were attended to.

One British Officer Killed.
Colonel Scott Chisholm, the only British officer killed, was formerly attached to the Ninth Lancers. He served with distinction in the Afghan war and organized the present imperial light horse, a majority of whom are refugees from the Rand.

The death of General Viljoen is a severe blow to the burghers and the death of General Koch and the capture of General Pretorius will handicap the further movements of this column.

According to advice from Durban, Natal, the Boers have entered Zululand, a large column advancing toward Meloth.

The best opinions do not credit the reports that the Boers are suing for peace or that they are likely to yield at present, though they think the Boers will probably retreat to their line of defense in the mountain passes of Lansing Nek and Drakenburg, where they have blocked the passes with great boulders and masses of rock blown up on either side and where, if they so desired, they would be able to hold out until the advance of Major General Sir Redvers Buller through the Orange Free State should compel them to leave the Natal side to meet the invasion from the south.

The sensational rumors of the designs of foreign powers, inimical to British interests, meet with scant credence, though it is admitted that it is difficult to explain the immense forces on land which Great Britain is now mobilizing. Elsewhere it is stated that the movements of the French Mediterranean fleet in the neighborhood of the Levant, where it could easily be joined by the Russian Black sea fleet by the straits of the Dardanelles, is occasioning suspicion.

Lady Randolph Churchill and Mrs. Arthur Paget are organizing a fund among American ladies in England with the intention to completely equip a hospital for service on the South African coast at a cost of £8,000. Lady Curzon and Mrs. Bradley Martin have been invited to join the committee.

The parliamentary secretary of the war office, Mr. George Wyndham, made a statement in the house of commons, saying: "Lord Wolseley sums up in the position as follows: 'In the battle of Elandslaagte, Oct. 21, two guns were captured from the Boers, who lost heavily.'

"A large column of the enemy appeared, advancing from the north and west on General Yule, who had fallen back from Dundee and was concentrating at Glencoe Junction. In this operation we gathered in the wounded and medical attendants left at Dundee. General White was in position at Ladysmith and is being reinforced from Pietermaritzburg. The enemy appears to be in large numerical superiority."

MR. O'BRIEN

Is Suspended For Calling Chauncy Iain a Murderer.

London, Oct. 23.—During the course of the day's proceedings Patrick O'Brien, Parnellite member for Killaloe, was suspended for declaring that the hands of the British secretary for the colonies, Mr. Chamberlain, are as much stained with blood as those of any murderer who ever mounted the scaffold.

The chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, made a statement on the question of the expenditure entailed by the Transvaal war. He said that the expenditures of the year had been increased by the supplementary vote to a total of £121,205,000, but, he added, the revenue had increased and he expected there would be an increase of £3,000,000 over his estimate of his revenue. This would be a considerable contribution toward the unforeseen expenditures and would leave about £7,000,000 to be provided.

He thought there should be no addition to the fixed debt, but that the money should be raised by a temporary addition to the floating debt. The chancellor of the exchequer, therefore, asked for power to raise £8,000,000 by treasury bills, the whole question of repayment and the question of fresh taxation to be left over till the next financial year.

Sir Michael also pointed out that the present war differed from previous ones and that the estimates had been more carefully drawn up. No one could foresee what the total would be; but the British troops had met with brilliant success and the colonies were loyal. Although there might be something in the news giving cause for anxiety, yet he saw no reason to anticipate that the campaign would not be brought to a successful conclusion within the period for which the estimates were framed.

As British colonies had been invaded he considered it to be consistent with all the laws of war if, when it was brought to a successful termination, the Transvaal taxpayer should at any rate have to bear part of the cost.

REVOLT IN COLOMBIA.

Official Adrives Received by Washington Authorities.

MARTIAL LAW IS DECLARED.

State Department Calls on the Navy For a Gunboat to Protect Interests of United States Citizens There.

Washington, Oct. 23.—A cablegram has been received at the state department from United States Consul Gudger at Panama, stating that an insurrection had broken out there and that martial law has been declared.

Mr. Gudger's cablegram was to the effect that the departments of Cundinamarca, Tolima and Santander are in insurrection, though the city of Panamá proper is as yet unaffected.

The state department has already called upon the navy department for a gunboat to proceed to Panama or some nearby port. The Marblehead is now on the west coast and if she can be reached it is probable that she will be ordered to go at once to Panama. On the gulf side the Detroit is nearest being at La Guaya and if the conditions in Venezuela are regarded as warranting her withdrawal she will be sent across to Colon.

A dispatch received at the state department from United States Minister Hart at Bogota informs the state department that the government is coming over to assist the revolutionists. No Magdalena steamers are running.

A General Revolt.

Cartegena, Colombia, Oct. 23.—News just received here shows the revolution is general. The insurgents have taken river steamers and have armed them and have burned railroad bridges. The government is arming and dispatching river steamers with troops. A government commissioner has arrived here.

Army Appointments.

Washington, Oct. 23.—These important military appointments have been decided upon: Brigadier General John C. Bates, U. S. V., and colonel of the Second infantry, regular army, to be major general of volunteers to fill the original vacancy caused by the increase in the enlisted force. Major General H. W. Lawton, U. S. V., and colonel in the inspector general's department, regular army, to be brigadier general of the regular army, vice Burke, retired. Brigadier General Frederick Funston, U. S. V., to be retained as brigadier general of volunteers to fill the original vacancy caused by the increase in the enlisted force. General Funston has already received notification of his intended appointment and has accepted.

Arrived Safely.

Glenwood Springs, Col., Oct. 23.—Information reached here of the safe arrival at the ranch of Pat Sullivan, 75 miles from here on the White river, of S. W. Deering and wife, the millionaire plow manufacturer of Chicago, who, it was feared, were hemmed in by the snow near Hahn's peak. They left here the latter part of September on a hunting trip and were caught in the mountains by the recent storm. Twelve horses died from exhaustion in making the journey with the Deerings through the snow to Sullivan's ranch.

Digging Out of the Snow.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 23.—The northern part of the state is digging itself out of the snow. For five days last week snow came down unceasingly. At the town of Choteau, county seat of Teton county, it was 10 to 12 feet deep in drifts and at least three feet on the level. Old times are agreed that nothing like this fall of snow has been seen in October for 20 years. He says the loss of life will exceed 20 persons in Teton county and that 20,000 sheep perished in the storm.

List of Boers Killed.

London, Oct. 23.—An official dispatch from Ladysmith, the British headquarters in Natal, gives the following list of casualties among the prominent Boers at the battle of Elandslaagte: General Koch, wounded and captured, since died; General Koch's son, killed; Colonel Schiel, German officer commanding the artillery, wounded and a prisoner; Commander Pretorius, wounded, prisoner. Steamer In Distress.
Port Townsend, Wash., Oct. 23.—The schooner Hera, with 200 passengers from Cape Nome and St. Michaels, is reported by the steamer Lakma as being in distress about six miles off Cape Flattery, for want of provisions and water. The Hera spoke the Lakma, but the latter could render no assistance, as she had several hundred passengers, and having made an unusually long trip down her larder was empty. How long the Hera's passengers and crew have been without food or water is not known.

Naval Medical Corps.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The strongest recommendation in the annual report of Surgeon General Van Repen, just made public, is that relating to the increase of the medical corps of the navy. He points out that while there has been a steady increase in the enlisted force of the navy for the past two years, and while the marine corps has been swelled by the addition of 3,000 men, there has been no suitable provision made for a corresponding increase in the medical corps.

Secretary Long Praised.

Pittsburg, Oct. 23.—Resolutions were adopted at the session of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church commanding Secretary Long for his recent official decision forbidding the sale of strong drink in the navy and requesting President McKinley to give his sanction to the enforcement of the anti-anteem law. The prisoner is James C. Lyle, and he was captured at Righy, Ida., Thursday night.

Scouting detachment, Thirty-Sixth volunteers, encountered insurgents southwest Santa Rita, scattering them, killing six, capturing eight and 10 rifles. The robbers crept through the line of guard some time during the night and stealing a team of horses made good their escape.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR KENTUCKY—Fair to-night and Wednesday; warmer in east portions to-night.

SECRETARY OF STATE FINLEY, in a circular letter to County Clerks in reference to his failure to include the device of the Brown ticket in a square as required by law, offers no explanation or excuse for his neglect or "error," except that the law does require him to place the devices in a square. That's true, but why were all the other devices placed in a square? Mr. Finley directs the Clerks to follow the law in preparing the ballot, which most of them would have done without any instructions from him.

THE citizens of East Ripley are in a state of great excitement over the appearance in their midst of what they claim is a genuine catamount or wildcat. Maybe Bill Goebel has gotten over there. Several Lexington ladies have declared that he has not the face of a man, and our Ripley friends may have mistaken "it" for a four-legged monster.—Public Ledger.

Keep it up, Mr. Ledger. Such senseless vilification and abuse as the above is only making votes for Senator Goebel. Some of the men that are vilifying him and abusing him ought to reform themselves morally before they turn their mud batteries on any one else.

SENATOR HANNA recently made a speech in Cleveland during which he asserted that the "trust" is a beneficent organization, and said: "The 'trust' is an evolution in business. They have been found to be necessary. The 'trusts' have the best men in the country at their head. It is said that the 'trusts' are against your interests. That may be, but if they are you may depend on the Republican party to look after that." Well, the Republican administration is not doing anything just at present to put a stop to the nefarious work of the "combinations." If they are "necessary" the commercial world was a long, long time finding it out. And Mr. Hanna will have a time of it convincing the people that the trusts are "beneficent" organizations.

Fine Jersey Cattle.

The Jersey Bulletin Sept. 27th, 1899, says: "Kentucky is one of the oldest States of the West and South in Jersey breeding, and Maysville was one of the first places to have Jersey cattle." The Jersey Bulletin is well posted as to Jerseys and its statement that Maysville was early noted for breeding of fine Jerseys is a fact. We are glad to be able to state that Maysville still sustains her reputation for fine Jerseys. In proof of which we notice the sale of a daughter of our cow Sirona 2nd, 38,011, at public sale, Columbus, O., for $290, the highest price paid at that sale, and also last week at the sale of Dr. C. E. Still, Kirksville, Mo., the Jersey cow Bessie Lewis 66,379 sold for $600. Bessie Lewis is a sister to Sigloon 32,880 that stands at the head of our herd, both being out of the same cow Sigletta 32,815. Bessie Lewis was sired by Ida's Stoke Pogis for which $5,000 was paid when he was two years old. Ida's Cinderella 36,490 also owned by us is a daughter of Ida's Stoke Pogis and is now in full flow of milk, and making two pounds of butter per day on usual feed of the herd. All lovers of well bred Jersey cattle are invited to come and see our herd. We claim as fine strains of Jersey blood as can be found in America. Respectfully.

"My Friend From India."

At Washington Opera House Thursday night, the charming comedy by H. A. DuSouche, "My Friend From India," will hold the boards. Even theosophists must laugh at the fun gotten out of the curious application of their doctrine in pushing the social aspirations of a wealthy pork packer's family in New York. The situation is not forced too much in the practical kidnapping of a barber, and boozing him as "My Friend From India," who has brought his yellow robe along in the shape of a silk bed spread, which was to conceal his identity for ultimate escape. The young lovers who profit by the situation will certainly have the sympathy of the ladies. The reputation of the gentlemen and ladies who are numbered among the Smyth and Rice comedians implies that it will be creditably presented.

In the matter of beautiful articles for wedding presents it's an acknowledged fact that you can find a greater variety of beautiful and suitable things at Ballenger's than any place else. New goods coming in every day.

The Ashland correspondent of the Catlettsburg Democrat in speaking of the death of the late James H. Smith: "No cause can be assigned for this rash action—only domestic trouble, and it is said he had been drinking. Mr. Smith was a painter and lived on Carter avenue in the East End. A prominent physician, who knew his family, says they are highly connected and one of the most influential in Mason County, and no one who knew him could doubt he had been well reared. He was honorable and upright in his dealings, his greatest harm being done to himself."

The wife of the late Senator Harlan, of Iowa, was Miss Kittie Peck, a native of Washington, this county, where she lived in the family of the late Marshall Key. A gentleman of that town meeting the lady once upon a Missouri river steamer, and having known her well, spoke to her, calling her by the familiar name of "Kittie," when she, turning to an elegant gentleman at her side, introduced him as "my husband, Senator Harlan, of Iowa." The gentleman relating the incident afterward said he was almost dumbfounded, as he thought she was yet plain Kittie Peck, whom he had known so well at Washington some years before. She was a very highly respected lady and died only a few years since.

It is announced that this will positively be the last season of Lewis Morrison's superbly staged "Faust" and likewise the final opportunity of seeing the original version of one of the best of the standard plays. The Morrison production has always been praiseworthy from every standpoint and from season to season the improvements in various ways have been noticeable and deserving of credit and more than passing comment.

From every city, where this grand play has been presented this year, comes the report that it will appear as though it were in its first season, so brilliant and pleasing are the new settings and particular mention is always made of the beautifully constructed garden scene and the marvelously arranged Brocken. All of the stage pictures are handsome and elaborate. At opera house next Monday night.

COLONEL BOONE.

An Ohio Paper Tells of One of His Numerous Railway Schemes.

[Portsmouth Blade.]

The Adams County innocents who were holding meetings in country school houses last fall to girdle the earth with "Black Diamond" railroads may find information in the following excerpt from the Columbus Dispatch:

"Colonel Boone, years ago, projected a railway enterprise through Crawford County, but though large sums of money were subscribed and collected the road was never built. Boone is now out with a unique proposition which is to issue all the old stockholders new stock in his company. He says that this will both insure the getting back of the original money invested, but also the profits attending same so that it will make each share of $50 worth $150. The Colonel asks for no more money and none of the old stockholders are objecting to the scheme."

Colonel Boone is said to be as nice an old grandfather of a chap as one would wish to see, a perfect gentleman and the best intentioned man in the world. When good intentions can be utilized as cross ties, or even ballast, his railroad schemes will begin to look more practicable.

MACKINTOSHES

It's worth while knowing just how much dressy protection from winter rains women can possess for $3.75. The garments at that price are caped, have velvet inlaid collars, are made of best Para rubber proofing with strapped seams that are also sewn, cemented and filled. Stylish and serviceable as well as absolutely water-proof.

FURS

We think we have the best collection of years this season. By "best" we mean rightness of fur, of workmanship, of price. We have sold several customers who have visited the Cincinnati market but returned to us because our garments were as stylish and high in quality, while lower in price from 25 to 50 per cent. This no idle boast—we are here with the goods to prove our statement. You know where to find us—and conviction.

LETTERS FOR SOLDIERS.

Care Should Be Taken in Addressing
Name of Company and Regiment
Should Be Given.

The Postoffice Department reports that large numbers of letters addressed to soldiers and sailors in the Philippine Islands are undeliverable through the failure of the sender to place on the envelope the name of the company and regiment or the name of the vessel to which he belongs.

All mail addressed to persons connected with the United States service in the Phillipine Islands must bear the name of the addressee and the name of the company and regiment to which he belongs, if a soldier, or the name of the vessel, if a sailor.

If in any other branch of the public service the designation of that branch.

Goebel Meeting in Covington.

[Covington Times.]
When a man is honored by the presence of 30,000 of his fellow citizens in his home town upon a return from a political campaign tour, most people would say he is in no immediate danger of a political demise. The reception tendered the Democratic candidate last night was one long to be remembered. Goebel's home does not seem to be as antagonistic as some would have you believe. The meeting was all the more notable because of the wild enthusiasm of the multitude gathered at Park Place to give assurance to the brilliant Kenton County Democrat—the next Governor of Kentucky—that he need fear no evil result here.

Logical Solutions.

We are frequently asked by our friends why it is that we are always busy, and on many days recently unable to wait on all our customers in anything like reasonable time. We can only answer to all inquiries, viz:

We positively let nothing go out of our house that we are not dead sure will fit and wear satisfactory.

As the large majority of our patrons leave the selection of their wants altogether to us, it puts the responsibility entirely upon our shoulders, therefore laying aside altogether the question of honesty, good business policy prompts us to do the right thing by them. Ninety-nine out of a hundred readers of this know our statement is true.

That our efforts to secure the proper stuff for this fall's trade are appreciated, hundreds of splendidly-dressed men and boys of Maysville, Mason and adjoining counties attest to.

Our patrons tell us that nowhere do they find

THE YOUNG MEN.

The Reception at the Y. M. C. A. Last Evening in Their Honor an Enjoyable Affair.

The reception to young men at the Y. M. C. A. last evening was largely attended and was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody present.

An entertaining musical and literary program was rendered in the parlor, including a recitation by City Clerk Ben T. Cox, vocal solos by Mr. A. H. Lamb, a former General Secretary, and by Mr. John Pollitt, and a timely address by Mr. H. C. Curran. Mr. Pollitt's "coon" songs were greatly enjoyed.

Afterwards the crowd adjourned to the gymnasium hall where they were entertained with an exciting game of basketball. The Maysville players are getting in fine trim for a game at Cincinnati November 20th.

Following this the crowd were again invited to the rooms below where they were served with a lunch of oysters and coffee.

Altogether the evening was a most enjoyable one, and it will not be the last of the good things which the association, under Secretary Baker's management, has in store for the young men of Maysville.

Orders for kindling promptly filled by the Ohio Valley Pulley Works. Telephone No. 50.

PLUMVILLE.

Mrs. Walter Jenkins, we are sorry to report, remained seriously ill.

The colored people held a basket meeting at the Morton grove Sunday.

Mr. A. L. Redman visited relatives in Lewis County the first of the week.

W. G. Fannen, of Carter County, is the guest of his brother, James Fannen.

There was quite a large attendance at the prayer meeting Sunday evening.

Harry Elliott, of Pana, Ill., visited friends and relatives in this locality recently.

W. G. Fannen will teach a class in vocal music here, beginning the first of the week.

Mrs. Bettie Sparks has returned to her home at Kinnear after a pleasant visit to her mother, Mrs.
Nancy Berry.

A puny child is always an anxiety to the parents. There seems generally no reasons why the little one should be weak when it is so well fed.
But the fact is that it does not matter how much food the child takes if the stomach cannot extract the nourishment from it. No benefit can be derived from just eating. That is the condition of many a sickly child. The stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition are not doing their work, and the body is really starving. It is little use to give fish foods, like cod liver oil or emulsions, in such a case, because these also have to be digested; they may lighten the stomach's labor but they do not strengthen it. Strength is what the stomach needs. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery strengthens the stomach, nourishes the nerves and increases the action of the blood making glands. It is superior to every other preparation for children's use, on account of its body building qualities, and also because it is pleasant to the taste and contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a valuable aid when the bowels are irregular. They are small. Children take them readily.

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

It isn't Mr. Goebel nor any particular measure that is to be passed upon in November by men professing the Democratic faith. It is the Democratic party itself that is on trial. The party of the people and for the people, as against usurpation, against Imperialism, against trust, against an arrogant gold power, against a party that favors all sorts of aggrandizement and encroachment that are in direct opposition to the people and constitutional government.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

No Material Change in Prices Last Week—
Some of the New Crop on Sale.

[Furnished by Glover & Durrell, Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.]

Sale on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,023 hds. with receipts for the same period $43 hds. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 182,066 hds. Sales of the crop of 1898 on our market to this date amount to 150,000 hds.

Our market this week shows no material change in prices that were current last week; at the same time a little more animation and snap are discernible, and the market generally can be considered more regular, but the market is still in a more regular, but the market is still the main wss not as good ss that of last week's offerings.

An occasional hogshead of new burley is appearing on the market, but nothing of decidedly good quality has yet been offered, but the prices realized for such as have been sold have been up to the expectations of the sellers.

After the recent handling season we look for quite an increase in receipts, which will in all probability include a sprinkling of new goods.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco 1898 crop:
